THE ENTERPRISE: THE CLAYTON COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE

Between January 1, 2007 and December 31, 2008, Victor Keith Hill served as elected Sheriff of Clayton County. During this time, Victor Keith Hill, acting through a PATTERN OF RACKETEERING ACTIVITY, maintained control of an ENTERPRISE, the Clayton County Sheriff's Office, a governmental entity. Victor Keith Hill maintained an interest in and control of the ENTERPRISE in Clayton County during the above dates.

Among the duties of the Sheriff are: maintaining the county jail, caring for and housing prisoners, transporting prisoners to and from court and other correctional facilities, serving arrest warrants, providing courthouse security, providing deputies to serve as bailiffs in judicial proceedings, and the approval of and receipt of bail bonds.

Although all employees of the Clayton County Sheriff's Office, regardless of position, rank or years of service, are civil service employees pursuant to Clayton County Civil Service System Act, Ga. L. 1994, the Sheriff has the authority to hire whomever he wishes. While the Clayton County Sheriff's Office is a paramilitary organization with a chain of command, the Sheriff may override any recommendation for discipline of an employee and may remove an individual from a position where they report to the "chain of command," making that employee report directly to the Sheriff.

THE PATTERN OF RACKETEERING ACTIVITY

Victor Keith Hill engaged in an interrelated pattern of criminal activity motivated by and the effect of which was pecuniary gain.

While serving as Sheriff of Clayton County, Victor Keith Hill engaged in at least two ACTS OF RACKETEERING ACTIVITY, as defined by Official Code of Georgia Annotated (OCGA) §§ 16-14-3(8), 16-14-3(9)(A), and 16-14-3(9)(B), and as enumerated below.

PECUNIARY GAIN

Victor Keith Hill, through the PATTERN OF RACKETEERING ACTIVITY and proceeds derived therefrom, acquired and maintained an interest in and control of personal property including money in Clayton County. By virtue of his position as Sheriff of Clayton County, Victor Keith Hill had opportunities, of which he took advantage, through the PATTERN OF RACKETEERING ACTIVITY, to obtain money and financial gain.

While serving as Sheriff, Victor Keith Hill conducted the business of the Sheriff in a manner in which he; illegally profited financially from his position as Sheriff through the use of Clayton County Sheriff's Office vehicles and fuel purchased by Clayton County to transport himself on personal trips not legitimately related to the performance of any of Victor Keith Hill's duties as Sheriff; illegally ordered a Sheriff's Office employee to perform personal work on behalf of Victor Keith Hill by ordering the employee to assist in the writing of a book that Victor Keith Hill was writing which was unrelated to his duties as Sheriff, while said employee was on-duty and being paid by Clayton County; illegally profited financially from fundraising events using on-duty Clayton County Sheriff's Office employees, Clayton County Sheriff's Office vehicles, and fuel purchased by Clayton County to conduct said fundraisers when said fundraisers were used to fund the Committee to Reelect Victor Hill campaign account; illegally profited financially from the use of Clayton County funds to pay for a vacation rental in North Georgia; illegally profited from his position as Sheriff by allowing a Sheriff's Office employee to receive payment from Clayton County in the form of "kickbacks" from the company that printed a publication entitled, "The Sheriff's Star;" illegally ordered that a Sheriff's Office employee be placed on paid administrative leave so that she could travel with Victor Keith Hill on personal trips and still receive a salary.

All of the crimes and acts charged in COUNTS ONE AND TWO, of this Bill of Indictment were committed between January 1, 2007 and December 31, 2008.

At least one of the ACTS OF RACKETEERING ACTIVITY occurred in Clayton County.

The ACTS OF RACKETEERING ACTIVITY (which, together, establish the PATTERN OF RACKETEERING ACTIVITY) engaged in by Victor Keith Hill had the same or similar intents, results, accomplices, victims and methods of commission, and were otherwise interrelated by distinguishing characteristics. The ACTS OF RACKETEERING ACTIVITY engaged in by Victor Keith Hill were not isolated incidents, but formed a PATTERN OF RACKETEERING ACTIVITY coordinated and directed toward the common objectives of facilitating the exploitation of Victor Keith Hill's position as Sheriff for personal financial gain as well as the financial gain of certain individuals he associated with. The ACTS OF RACKETEERING ACTIVITY were further interrelated through Victor Keith Hill's use of Clayton County Sheriff's Office employees and property to commit the ACTS OF RACKETEERING ACTIVITY.

CATEGORIES OF THE ACTS OF RACKETEERING ACTIVITY

The ACTS OF RACKETEERING ACTIVITY engaged in by Victor Keith Hill include, but are not limited to:

1. Violations of Article 1 of Chapter 8 of the Criminal Code of Georgia relating to theft (OCGA §16-8-2, THEFT BY TAKING and OCGA §16-8-4, THEFT BY CONVERSION);
2. Violations of OCGA §16-10-20, FALSE STATEMENTS AND WRITINGS, CONCEALMENT OF FACTS, AND FRAUDULENT DOCUMENTS IN MATTERS WITHIN JURISDICTION OF STATE OR POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS

Victor Keith Hill used Clayton County vehicles himself to travel both in-state and out-of-state on personal trips, including vacations, not legitimately related to the performance of his duties as Sheriff. Victor Keith Hill used an on-duty Clayton County Sheriff's Office employee to perform work on a book that Victor Keith Hill was writing, which was unrelated to his duties as Sheriff. Victor Keith Hill also used an on-duty Clayton County Sheriff's Office employee to work on his reelection campaign to include designing a website, postcards, signs, magnets, and other campaign literature using Sheriff's Office employees, Clayton County Sheriff's Office vehicles, and fuel purchased by Clayton County to conduct fundraisers when said fundraisers were used to fund the Committee to Reelect Victor Keith Hill campaign account. Victor Keith Hill allowed a Sheriff's Office employee to receive payment from Clayton County in the form of "kickbacks" from the company that printed a publication entitled, "The Sheriff's Star."
